Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, The State of South Dakota is proud of the many fine residential communities that have been built in recent years; and,

WHEREAS, New housing represents improved planning and design, and progress in the use of new materials and methods of construction; and the establishment of new communities, schools, churches, roads, shopping centers and other public facilities has been stimulated by new housing; and,

WHEREAS, It is fitting that our citizens recognize what the building of thousands of new homes and apartments means in civic and economic progress to South Dakota and what home ownership can mean both to the individual owner and to the total economic and social benefit to the state:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim August 28-30, 1981, as

and I call upon the citizens of South Dakota to emphasize throughout this period their confidence in the future economic well-being of out State and their recognition of home construction and ownership as a basic factor in our economic progress.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-seventh Day of July, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-One
